ABOUT US

At first glance, "Think2" can mean many things: to think, to believe, to consider, to mean - and the whole thing exponentiated!
But at second glance it is much more. Think2 doesn't just mean that you have to think when you take on the challenges of our escape games, but also us when we work every day to make your experience with us even better - from gamemaster to founder.
We think big first - and plan even bigger. That's why we don't buy our ideas and concepts nowhere. We let them develop exclusively and 100% within us.
And this claim can be transferred to any other area!
Our projects range from team training, simulation labs at the university to the planning of extraordinary educational concepts and game-based teambuilding.

Think2 means innovative puzzles, unique service, and your very own individual game experience with teambuilding character!
And not just when the clock starts ticking....

OUR CONCEPT

No matter if in the whole company or just in the department - wherever you have a common interest or goal, you can't function without teamwork.
In an online Escape Room, essential components of good teamwork are put to the test - making it an effective way to analyze, question and improve teamwork. In our online team building, communication and organization as well as time management, feedback and task sharing are demanded from the players - skills that are also of special importance in everyday work!

Think serious Games

Our Think Serious Games are digital Escape Room games that not only offer exciting puzzle fun, but also challenge and encourage teamwork. Work together to achieve your common goal! Our serious games are especially suitable for companies and project teams that want to improve their cooperation and problem solving skills in a fun way. Our online escape games have been specifically designed and developed to drive team building and analysis. This makes them an effective method to conduct sustainable teambuilding activities even in the current situation. Experience innovative game-based teambuilding with us!

YOUR PARTNER FOR TEAMBUILDING

We are experts when it comes to team training: With the help of our Escape Rooms, we have often analyzed team dynamics and accompanied many project teams and work groups in training sessions.
Due to our numerous project partners in Bochum (Germany) and especially our cooperation with the Institute of Work Science at the Ruhr-University Bochum, our concept is based on the latest research results and we pass this knowledge on to you through our team trainings online!
Our online Escape Rooms were also designed in cooperation with the university and therefore have a puzzle concept that is especially designed for teambuilding and cooperation.

EXEMPLARY SCHEDULE

PREPARATION

The Zoom setup is done via Think Space. You invite your colleagues, we do the rest!

WELCOMING

ca. 10 min

The team event starts with the whole group together. After a welcome from you and us, it can already start!

KICK-OFF

ca. 15 min

After a common start, the groups will be divided. In addition, our gamemasters will give you a detailed introduction to the online game. Here is enough time for all your questions.

THE GAME

120 min

Now the game begins. For this purpose, the individual groups are directed to their own breakout rooms, where you can exchange ideas together.

REFLECTION

ca. 30 min

After the game is finished, the groups gather together again. Here there is now the opportunity to take a short break. This is followed by the reflection phase by our game master.
